Psalm 56:12

What Can Man Do To Me?

(why) for You (the Lord) have delivered (or, to snatch away, rescue, save) my soul (personal) from death. Have You (the Lord) not kept my feet (personal) from falling (or, stumbling), (why) that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

Psalm 56:13

What Can Man Do To Me?

What Can Man Do To Me?

What or who is there to fear?

What Can Man Do To Me?

What or who is there to fear?

And what can man really do to me?

What Can Man Do To Me?

What or who is there to fear?

And what can man really do to me?

Man can oppress, slander, hurt, hate, maim, and murder me, for starters. But, of course, that is not the answer David is giving us in Psalm 56.

His answer is: Nothing!

What Can Man Do To Me?

What Can Man Do To Me?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

As it is written:

*“For Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.”*

What Can Man Do To Me?

Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors
(how) through Him who loved us.

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
